IN LOVING MEMORY OF THE MAN WHO DEDICATED HIS LIFE TO US WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK

How can you judge a man's true worth During his short life-span on earth? One might say great wealth and land, But these will shift like grains of sand. I rather think it's one whose deeds Have sympathies with human needs. Mr. Rettig was such a man Who would perhaps give us this rule— "Not what can the school do for you, But what can you do for the school?"

He taught us, too, to play the game
In fairness and with courage high
To strive to win, but then
If we were beaten, smile not cry.
Good qualities we may possess
That lay unnoticed on the shelf
Without this one great factor,
A true belief in one's ownself.

His guiding hand still can be felt And will, unmeasured, through the years His boundless spirit whispers still "Give me your smiles and not your tears."

Sharon Chilcote

MR. RETTIG'S SOJOURN THROUGH WOODWARD

MR RETTIC was popular with all of those under him, from assistant principals down to students.

Mr. Robert Rettig came to Woodward in January of 1958, replacing Mr. Frank Duvendack as principal. He had previously been head football coach at Scott and basketball coach and assistant principal in charge of activities at DeVilbiss. During his five years at Woodward, Mr. Rettig endeared himself to the hearts of students and faculty members alike. He attended practically all athletic contests and staunchly cheered his team on to victory. At a surprise assembly in the fall of 1961, "Mr. Woodward" was paid a tribute by the entire school. Here he was presented an oil portrait of himself painted by a former Woodward student, Diane Attie. A memorial scholarship fund has now been set up in Mr. Rettig's memory. Although he is not with us, his ideals will continue to be a part of our school.

MR. RETTIG'S PRESENCE enhanced almost every school event, athletic and academic. Here he is seen at the annual Roman banquet given by the Latin students of Woodward.

PROMINENT in education, Mr. Renig was one of the founders of the Area Student Council.

THE BOOMING VOICE of a leader, expressing the thought for the day, will never be forgotten.

Faced with the stark reality of the loss of Mr. Rettig, but guided by his fine example and sustained by his belief in us, we began 1963 with a firm resolution to carry on as though "Mr. Woodward" were here and to make him proud of us. This type of thinking is an indication of what Mr. Rettig has done for us. As our greatest booster, he has inspired every student to do his best-in athletic contests, scholastic competition, and everyday citizenship. He made us believe in ourselves, for him we could do anything — the mark of a great leader. His easy, friendly manner; his great booming voice; his true democratic spirit, and his genuine affection for all of us will be remembered always. This list of qualities makes Mr. Rettig sound like a legendary hero, but he was all that and more — a real giant among men. He taught us to win and to lose gracefully. He taught us courage, dedication to a task, humility and honesty. The image of this beloved man will be with us always, shaping our characters and guiding us in our lives.

Lives of great men all remind us We can make our lives sublime And, departing, leave behind us Footprints on the sands of time.

OUR NEW PRINCIPAL

Although greatly saddened by the loss of Mr. Rettig, all of us at Woodward were grateful and appreciative of the fact that someone as capable and experienced as Mr. Virgil Sloan was prepared to maintain the high standards and enthusiastic spirit of Calvin M. Woodward High School. Mr. Sloan came to Woodward in the fall of 1947 and taught World History and American History. As his experience increased. Mr. Sloan excelled and attained the positions of dean of hovs and assistant principal of administration. This latter position, in addition to the fact that he holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Master's degree from Defiance College and Ohio State University, has qualified and enabled Mr. Sloan to acquire his present job as principal of Woodward High School

MR. SLOAN'S MESSAGE

Woodward High is a school of great traditions

Seniora, you have done much to add to these traditions. May I wish you the greatest success in your life endeavors. We hope you will call on us if we can be of help to you

To the rest of you at Woodward, I hope that you will resolve more to make the most of the opportunities afforded you to improve yourselves to the lamits of your abilities

SOPHOMORE ADVISERS

Freshmen take their place in school life

Last September you entered Woodward as a freshman, bewildness and sits. If you were like the rest of us, it took you the first month to find where all your classes were. You are no longer just a freshman, you are now a part of Woodward. In the next three years you will become more a part of Woodward You will make new friends; your interests will widen; your activities will increase. If you take advantage of all the opportunities Woodward has to offer, you will leave school a better and more mature person But remember that you get as much out of school as you put in. Whatever you do, do to the best of your ability. Do your best to improve Woodward and to upbe dats free fraditions. You are Woodward, be proud of it.

WOODWARD-24 ROGERS-6

A fired-up Woodward team ran out on the Rogers' field looking for its first win in four games. Behind the hard rushing of senior backs, Willie Mitchell, Jim Chamblee, and Dave Bishop, the Polar Bears easily won over a highly rated team from Rogers by a score of 24-6.

WOODWARD-0 WATTE-6

Playing in a driving rain which produced a sea of mud, the Bears closed out their 1962 season. With each team unable to move the ball on the water-clogged field, the game went on in a scoreless tie. However, with three minutes remaining in the game, the Waite Indians started their offense and came on to score the only talk of the game and to give the Polar Bears a final record of 5-4

THE 1963 SAGA STAFF

Many changes have been made in the Saga this year. As you can plainly see, it now comes in the new, improved giant economy-size. The only thing that hasn't changed is that old Saga Staff spirit. We still have that same carefree, we-own-the-world attitude; although at times we have thought we'd lose our sanity. (Who knows? Maybe we did lose it.)

PROJECTIONISTS

The projectionists, otherwise known as Whorley's Raiders, seldom get credit for their work. Let the Saga Staff correct that situation. These hard working but little-known boys are responsible for the operation of most of the school's electronic equipment. Our thanks to them

Study halls are not for studying; at least not on Fridays. Study halls are for reading the Tattler. The hard work, energy, and imagination of the staff combine to make this newspaper one of Woodward's greatest assets. The people on these pages, under the guidance of Mrs. Marie Ersig, provide us each week with the latest news and bits of humor. The entire staff deserves our thanks and our congratulations for a job well done

THE WOODWARD BAND

Under the bill rapt direction of Mr. Samuel Szor, Wood. ward's band has once again proved itself the best in the city. What would a mass meeting be without the band? What would foothall games be without such extraordinary half time shows as "The Dram Stow" of Carrelet" 'How could our Extravaranza. The Music Man, have been possible without these people? And who hasn't tapped his left or clayped his hands when our bond played. In he quality and poish of its performances, the band has never oace disapported us because of Mr. Szor and his fine emskrais every Woodward student can say with prule, "That sour band!"

Songs must have been created to be song by Wood-ward's Choraliers. Directed by Mr. L. gar Sorton, the Choraliers have performed a great variety of songs, ranging from the filt of "Ingle Bols" to the majesty of The Lord's Prayer." This group exhibited its fine voices this year at the angular Christinas and Laster programs. Singly Woodward, can be proud of these "masters of melody."

STUDENT COUNCIL QUEEN

Woodward's candidate this year for the title of Toledo Area Student Council Queen was Mara Velme. She represented Woodward at the Queen's Tea and at the Area Dance, "Enchanted is the Night" Mara to one of those girls with the rare combination of intelligence, sparkling personality, and loveliness. Her graciousness and charm are certainly an asset to Woodward High School.
